Dunn-Edwards Provides Free Painting Services and Materials to KYCC

LOS ANGELES (Oct. 28, 2014) – The Dunn-Edwards Corporation in Los Angeles generously provided the Los Angeles-based nonprofit KYCC (Koreatown Youth and Community Center) with free painting expertise and materials, refreshing the interior and exterior of KYCC’s Wilton Family Apartments and Wilton Center, located on Wilton Place, just south of Wilshire Boulevard.

Dunn-Edwards donated a total of 229 gallons of paint, and also provided the quality services of local painting contractor Master Company.

This project began with paint color recommendations in the summer of 2014; the painting process, which took about three weeks, was finalized in early October. Dunn-Edwards supplied the highest-quality paints, painting supplies, and equipment needed for this job.

“Dunn-Edwards recognizes the value of beautifying our community,” states KYCC Executive Director John Ho Song. “By providing their generous services, expertise and materials, they completely transformed the look of our affordable housing building and youth center, elevating the quality of life of our residents and clients. KYCC is extremely grateful for this alliance and we look forward to continuing our partnership with Dunn-Edwards.

“Affordable housing shouldn’t look like affordable housing,” Song adds.

Dunn-Edwards has produced and sold premium paint products for more than 85 years and is the #1 Choice of Painting Professionals based on an independent study where licensed painting contractors in Los Angeles, San Diego and Phoenix overwhelmingly selected Dunn-Edwards as the paint they would use on their own homes. With more than 115 company stores in California, Arizona, Nevada, New Mexico and Texas, and more than 60 authorized dealers throughout the Southwest,
