We have been serving our diverse community for more than 40 years, and if you're passionate about creating change within our community, one family at a time, we'd like to meet you.

Prevention Education Coordinator (Sierra Health Foundation Project) (Full-time, Non-Exempt)

Unit: Prevention Services
Updated: 05/27/2020

Reports To: Prevention Education Services Manager
Salary: $45,000 – 53,000 annually DOE, plus BENEFITS

Positions Available: 1

Summary: Under the direction of the Prevention Education Manager, the Prevention Coordinator is a management level position that oversees the operations of marijuana and tobacco-related second-hand smoke prevention services in parks on a day-to-day basis, develops and implements programs, and supervises program staff. KYCC's "MacArthur Park Community Initiative" program will reduce use and exposure to marijuana and tobacco-related secondhand smoke to youth ages 12-26 at MacArthur Park located in the Westlake neighborhood of Los Angeles by 10% by November 2022. KYCC will achieve this by (1) establishing a community council with stakeholders to revitalize MacArthur Park; (2) developing and adopting a citywide smoking initiative that reduces use and exposure to marijuana, tobacco products and secondhand smoke; and (3) providing 30-40 substance-free engagement activities in MacArthur Park to educate and raise awareness towards marijuana and tobacco use, exposure and cessation resources. Performance is reviewed on a continuous basis with specific goals and objectives identified throughout the year. This is a full-time, non-exempt position.
