

EMPLOYMENT OPPORTUNITY

Love to help others? Have a passion for numbers? The Community Tax Site Assistant helps low-income families with simple tax preparation. The goals of the Community Tax Site Program are to provide free, high quality tax preparation services; to ensure that taxpayers receive all eligible credits, especially the Earned Income Tax Credit; to save high fees associated with commercial tax preparers; and to enhance the financial well-being of tax clients through offering matched savings accounts and residential utility assistance.

We have been serving our diverse community for over 40 years, and if you're passionate about creating change within our community, one family at a time, we'd like to meet you.
