

EMPLOYMENT OPPORTUNITY

Koreatown Youth and Community Services (KYCC) has been serving our diverse community since 1975 and remain committed to meeting the needs of the multicultural Koreatown community. KYCC was founded on serving youth, with the Youth Services Program serving as the agency's flagship. Youth Services staff work with and encourage students ages 5 to 14 to find their passion by patiently supporting them academically as well as socially and emotionally to unlock student's potential by cultivating their strengths. We believe that quality youth programs can make a powerful difference in the life of a child, and we're looking for a driven and committed individual to join our team.

Youth Services offers elementary and middle school after-school programming at two sites (Menlo 90006 and Wilton 90005).
